NOTICE

All PJR motions must be claimed at the short calendar call. When being claimed for the first time on short calendar, unless agreement can be reached, the following procedure will apply:

1. The case will be marked over the clerk's office to the short calendar two weeks from the first short calendar date, unless the parties notify the court that the motion is resolved.

2. The parties must file an offer of proof (written summary of the testimony of each witness offered to prove facts in issue) to the court and each other within one week from date of the first short calendar date.

3. Cases appearing on the short calendar, after exchanging offers of proof, will be heard on factual issues determined by the court to be in dispute and subject to the availability of the court to hear the matter.

The clerk's office will accept NO REQUESTS OTHER THAN to
